UGC-Sponsored Two Day National Workshop

PARADIGM SHIFTS IN HUMANITIES:

From Literature To Cultural Studies

SEPT 30
AND

2015

Dept of English
SN College Chempazhanthy
in collaboration with
Centre For Cultural Studies
University of Kerala

Sree Narayana College, Chempazhanthy, under the SN Trusts, has completed glorious fifty years of dedicated service, imparting higher education to thousands of students. Apart from class room education, we offer tremendous possibilities to our students in improving their life skills, giving them opportunities by conducting seminars, workshops and symposiums. As part of it, the Postgraduate Department of English is organising a 2-day National Workshop on Cultural Studies in collaboration with The Centre for Cultural Studies, University of Kerala on Sept 30 and Oct 01, 2015.

Cultural Studies as a department, as a discipline addresses questions related to human societies and the dynamics of living in a community. It probes into social life in all its intricacies and uses the methodologies and practices of social sciences and literature. It is an offshoot of postmodernist theories and encourages alternate readings of narratives. Moreover it opens up possibilities for academicians and researchers from various disciplines.

The Workshop aims to enlighten the participants on the following:

1. To understand Cultural Studies as a discipline and its relevance in a global society
2. To introduce possibilities of innovative ideas in the area
3. To enable teachers to explore further research areas and to equip them to impart the same knowledge to the students
4. To discuss methodologies and theoretical frameworks relevant to the area of study

We cordially invite teachers, research scholars and students to participate in this event.
